

SUNDAY IN THE PARK, WITH US!

On June 22, for the second straight year, we welcomed summer with a picnic in Sellwood Park in southeast Portland. The warm sunshine brought out about 18 folks, who enjoyed fine food, fine wine and fine friends. As usual, Everette Williams (above, far right) was the best-dressed OregonTuscan.

Louise Ramunno-Johnson and husband, Walter, (above, left) found some shade, while Louise' veggie torta (above, right) was one of the highlights of the buffet table. Audrey Perino (below, far left) chatted up club newcomer Marybeth Fossati. Audrey's brother, Ron, (below, right, no hat) flew in that day from Albuquerque for a visit and immediately felt at home among fellow Italian-Americans like Frank Palandrani. And the Pierettis, (left, bottom photo), Astrid and Gino, both chowed down and ciao'd down! Thanks to everyone for coming!
