

FOOD TRADITIONS...AND NEW WAYS OF DOING THINGS

FEB. 15, 2015

Our February meeting featured Stefania Toscano (above left), owner and chef of Taste Unique, a shop which specializes in take-home, homemade Italian cuisine. She shared her passion for cooking with the audience, and that included a prized cookbook which her aunt passed down, written in 1809! After a Valentines' break for some tiramisu, Jimmie Moglia shared his passion for learning, including a photo his high school (above right) and the outside-the-box approach to language he picked up there. That approach constitutes the basis for Jimmie's Fast Dynamic Italian lessons (bottom of this page) which he's sharing with us in 20-minute installments at some meetings.
